Bethlehem Church Life Centre: Cllr. S. Kendall reported that he had recently met with Rhydian Lewis of BCCLC regarding the gym at the life centre. BCCLC are in the process of bringing the space back to life. They have a clear vision of what they want to do with that space and have begun the process of applying for funding. The intention is to develop an adaptable community space, mainly aimed at young people, but also being able to facilitate other groups and demographics. They have begun by moving some furnishings into the space and will be undertaking some internal reordering to prepare it for its reimagined use.

BCCLC have recently been awarded funding from BAVO to host several Community Meals. Again, this is part of the new vision they have to bring the center back to life as a place of community connection. The first Community Meal is planned for Sunday the 14th of December and advertising / promotion will commence imminently.

It was agreed to invite Mr. Lewis to the January meeting of the Community Council to hear further the plans for BCCLC. Essential road works to on five M4 bridges near Pyle: Cllr. H. J. The refurbishment of the M4 coincided with the works by Wales and West Utilities on the gas network infrastructure works at Pyle cross compounding delays and problems. Failure to communicate the urgent and planned works has been raised by Cllrs David, Gebbie and the Margam local members with the Welsh Government's trunk agency.

David reported that as of Saturday (1 November), even more young people are eligible for Welsh Government's £1 bus fare scheme. Five to 15 year-olds are also now eligible, following the initial introduction of the scheme to 16-21 year-olds. The expansion ensures more families and communities across South Wales will benefit from lower travel costs. The initial roll out to 16-21 year-olds has seen a positive take up connecting young people with education, employment, and social opportunities across the country.

Bus service to return through Mawdlam and Kenfig Pool: Cllr. H. J. David reported that a bus service linking Mawdlam and Kenfig Pool with Bridgend and Porthcawl is set to be reinstated following approval by Bridgend County Borough Council's Cabinet. Funding for the reinstated service has been provided through Welsh Government's Bus Network Grant, meaning there's no additional cost to the council. Work is now underway to finalise arrangements with First Cymru Buses Ltd, with a start date to be confirmed once the operator has completed the statutory registration process with the Traffic Commissioner. Further details about the start date for the new service will be provided in due course.
